

A Flat With A Dark Side

Description

Moving into your first flat is something everyone looks forward to, but when young Martin moves into an exciting apartment to begin his studies in Berlin, the reality is a world of dark sexual violence. Unable to form close relationships with his peers at university, he soon falls for his mysterious neighbour and landlady, Simone. There, deep in the walls of his new abode, he discovers the true horror of his first love.

The film is screening in selected cinemas now, and features music we sourced for a number of scenes. Don't miss the chance to catch this slice of edgy modern noir.
