

Timezone struts onto the silver screen

Description

For the well-dressed week thatâ??s in it, hereâ??s one of our sleekest recent placements.

Streetwear sages Timezone continue a beautiful friendship with Hurricane Deanâ??s â??Flat Random Noiseâ?? in their lushly-lensed fashion film, extended to cinemas for the summer run.

Previously featured in the brandâ??s Autumn/Winter film, the young German gents layer an infectious indie tonal brightness with more shadowy post-punk sensibilities, propelled by rigorous guitar lines we knew were plenty sharp enough to match the threads onscreen.
