

Layâ??s let loose

Description

Even the most manic party needs crowd-pleasing nosh â?? and as snacks go, these are certainly no wallflowers. Layâ??s ruffled crisps needed a bold track with plenty of texture for their Polish debut.

The chunky drum and bass drop of genre-splicing Californian DJ Rudebratâ??s track â??Whiskey Dream VIPâ?? provided the filmâ??s fleet-footed climax with more than enough flavour to inspire two couch potatoes to trade in the divan for the dance floor. If youâ??re still searching for your signature move, this might be a strategy worth testing â?? though if you hog the whole bag to yourself, we canâ??t be held responsible for any shape-throwing-induced stitches that may result.
