

Cote & Sport's beautiful games

Description

Ever mourn your two left feet on the football pitch, or the painful lack of hand-eye co-ordination that kept you from your true calling of all-star tennis supremo? Betting service Cote & Sport crafted an electrifying spot pulsing with the drama of sport â?? but not necessarily from the playersâ?? perspective.

The service, which funds Moroccoâ??s main sports and games inclusion initiative, evokes the passion of the spectator, and the skill of placing a solid bet. The filmâ??s drama wanted a little high-octane bolstering â?? we could think of no finer accompaniment than the towering cinematic build of Californiaâ??s Audiomachine.
