In his latest work Niklaus Hilber tells a modern teenager drama.

Under the reign of the superficiality of digital media with high-gloss, overly filtered selfies and perceptual pressure towards being cool and sexy the protagonists are struggling to discover their true emotions. The story culminates in a tragedy drawing a blurred line between victim and perpetrator, guilt and innocence.

We provided music licensing and music supervision for this great piece of work which recently won the audience award at the Zurich Film Festival. We congratulate the whole team to this success !
