

Into The Beat Dances Onto Netflix

Description

German dance film Into The Beat is available to watch on Netflix from today (Friday 16th April). We produced several tracks especially for the film's all important dance scenes, and also music supervised the project.

The film follows the story of a young ballerina frustrated by the rigidity of ballet discovering the world of hip hop dancing for the first time. It's a classic coming of age story wrapped up in an explosion of sound, colour and of course dance.
