Description

You know it. Looking for a new job can be a tedious task. Firstly, you need to create all the paperwork, then you are spending hours browsing through dozens of job offers and wondering whether they would be the right fit. But what if there was an easier way?

Profesia.sk, which means â??professionâ?? in Slovak, is one of the largest job search platforms in Slovakia. They were founded in 1997 and have gradually expanded to the Hungarian and Czech markets. The company is part of the Finnish media group Alma Media that operates the largest network of job portals in Central Europe and the Baltics.

They offer a variety of tools to make finding a job easier, including an instant CV feature. This feature allows you to create a CV as easy as taking a selfie. You simply take a picture of yourself, answer a few questions about your experience and education, and youâ??re done!

Ready? Set? Go!

Their new advert perfectly illustrates how easy it is to use their services. It shows a woman doing parachute, landing directly at the job interview. A perfect symbol for how Profesia can adapt to your personal life and the same way accelerate your job searching ambitions. Thatâ??s the way we like it !

There would be hardly any better song than the evergreen â??Thatâ??s the way I like itâ?• from American disco and funk band KC and the Sunshine Band. Itâ??s the perfect song to get you pumped up and ready to take on the world!
