

TV commercial bespoke composition | Fujitsu General (Japan)

Description

For the Fujitsu General air conditioner Nocris TV commercial, we were happy to supervise the music of this project.

For the 2021 “Align with you” campaign, we worked with an English composer to create a refreshing rock song that matches the beauty and joy of the picture.

In the 2022 “Heat sterilisation with the power of hot water” version, the theme was “heat sterilisation”. Therefore we worked with a German composer and created a song with an electronic taste and also added vocals like “heat it up”, that matches and highlights the topic of this commercial.
